

Master of Science in Forensic Science

39 Semester Hours – Six Semesters

The MS in Forensic Science follows a two-year plan of study to be completed over six semesters. The following course rotation will be observed:

Semester	Courses
First Semester (Fall)	FRSC 6000 – Alternative Light and Low Photography
	CHEM 6000 – Organic Chemistry Spectroscopy (Existing Course)
Second Semester (Spring)	FRSC 6050 – Human Blood and DNA
	BIOL 6240 – Forensic Genetics
Third Semester (Summer)	FRSC 6100 – Forensic Anthropology
	BIOL 5100 – Infectious Diseases (Existing Course)
Fourth Semester (Fall)	BIOL 6300 – Forensic Entomology
	FRSC 6150 – Medicolegal Death Investigation or FRSC 6200 – Blood Stain and Ballistic Reconstruction
Fifth Semester (Spring)	CHEM 6550 – Chemical Forensics
	CHEM 6050 – Forensic Chemistry and Toxicology or FRSC 6250 – Imprint Evidence
Sixth Semester (Summer)	FRSC 6600 – Forensic Capstone
	FRSC 6750 – Forensic Internship