The Clery Act

Piedmont University is committed to creating and sustaining an educational and working environment that promotes the safety and well-being of all members of the University community. The University works to prevent and respond to criminal offenses, hate crimes, weapons violations, drug and alcohol law violations, sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Police Chief Jim Andrews serves as the University's Clery Administrator.

Piedmont University prepares this Annual Security Report (ASR) in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act). The report provides information about campus security policies and procedures, crime statistics, timely warnings, emergency notifications, the Daily Crime Log, emergency response and evacuation procedures, and other disclosures required under the Clery Act.

The crime statistics included in this Annual Security Report reflect reported incidents occurring within the University's Clery geography, including the Demorest and Athens campuses and applicable public property within, immediately adjacent to, and accessible from those campuses. The University also reports statistics for applicable properties owned or controlled by Piedmont University that are frequently used by students but are not immediately adjacent to a campus, including Piedmont Village in Demorest and the Lillian E. Smith Center in Clayton, Georgia.

Where applicable, the University also includes crime statistics reported by local law enforcement agencies for Clery-reportable public property and other applicable Clery geography.

Preparation and Distribution of the Annual Security Report

The Piedmont University Campus Police Chief, in conjunction with the Title IX and Compliance Coordinator, is responsible for preparing, publishing, and distributing the Annual Security Report (ASR) by October 1 of each year. The ASR provides current and prospective students and employees with information about campus safety and security policies, procedures, crime statistics, and campus law enforcement.

In preparing the Annual Security Report, Piedmont University Campus Police coordinate with offices and departments throughout the University, including Administration, Student Life, Title IX, Residence Life, Campus Security Authorities (CSAs), and applicable local law enforcement agencies. This process includes collecting and reviewing information and crime statistics for Clery-reportable locations, University-owned or controlled property, and other applicable Clery geography.

By October 1 of each year, the University sends an electronic notification to all current students and employees regarding the availability of the Annual Security Report. The notification includes the website address where the report may be accessed, and a brief description of the information contained in the report.

Prospective students and prospective employees are provided with information regarding the availability of the Annual Security Report and may access the report through the University's website:

<https://www.piedmont.edu/campus-safety/>

Anyone, including current or prospective students and employees, may obtain a paper copy of the Annual Security Report by contacting one of the following offices or using the contact information below:

- Demorest Campus Police: 706-939-1349
- Athens Campus Administrative Services Director: 706-433-1785

Promoting a safe and secure environment is a shared responsibility across the University community. Piedmont University reviews its applicable policies and procedures annually to help ensure that they remain current and consistent with the Clery Act and other applicable federal, state, and institutional requirements.

Our Commitment to Campus Safety

Piedmont University is committed to maintaining a safe and secure educational and working environment for students, faculty, staff, and visitors.

The University prepares this Annual Security and Fire Safety Report (ASR) in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act). The report provides information about campus safety policies and procedures, crime statistics, emergency response and evacuation procedures, fire safety, and other disclosures required by applicable law.

Campus Police Authority and Jurisdiction

Piedmont University Campus Police operate pursuant to applicable Georgia law and University policies. Under O.C.G.A. § 20-8-2, a campus police officer employed by an educational facility who is authorized by the governing body or authority of the educational facility and otherwise meets the applicable requirements of Georgia law may exercise law enforcement powers, including the power of arrest, within the scope of the authority granted by law.

Campus Police are responsible for responding to and investigating criminal offenses occurring within their jurisdiction. Campus Police coordinate with or request assistance from local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies when circumstances warrant.

Piedmont University Campus Police maintain professional working relationships with neighboring law enforcement agencies, including the Demorest Police Department, Habersham County Sheriff's Office, and Athens-Clarke County Police Department. These relationships facilitate coordination and assistance in responding to and investigating criminal offenses when appropriate.

Piedmont University encourages the accurate and prompt reporting of criminal activity to Campus Police and the appropriate law enforcement agency. Campus Police maintain communication with the Habersham County and Athens-Clarke County 911 emergency systems to facilitate coordination with law enforcement, fire, and emergency medical personnel when necessary.

For additional security at the Athens Campus, University buildings and parking areas are monitored throughout the week by a contracted private security company, BOS Security.

Reporting Procedures for Crimes

Students, faculty, staff, and visitors are encouraged to promptly report crimes, emergencies, and other public safety concerns. Emergencies or situations involving an immediate threat to safety should be reported by calling 911.

Reports may be made to Piedmont University Campus Police, Athens Campus Security, appropriate University officials, or local law enforcement, as applicable. Reporting to the University and reporting to law enforcement are separate processes, and individuals may choose to report to either or both.

Reports and requests for assistance may be made using the following contacts:

- Demorest Campus Police: 706-939-1349
- Athens Campus Director of Administrative Services: 706-433-1785
- Athens Campus Security (after hours): 706-433-1789
- Emergency Assistance: 911
- Vice President of Student Affairs: 706-778-8500, ext. 1050
- Counseling Services: 706-778-8500, ext. 1259
- Director of Residence Life: 706-778-8500, ext. 1357
- Georgia Poison Control: 1-800-282-5846

Responses to Reported Crimes

When a crime or other public safety incident is reported, Piedmont University Campus Police, Athens-Clarke County Police, or Athens Campus Security will take appropriate action based on the nature, location, and circumstances of the report. This may include providing immediate assistance, documenting the incident, investigating within applicable jurisdiction, or coordinating with the appropriate local, state, or federal law enforcement agency.

The University will make reasonable efforts to document reported incidents and respond in accordance with applicable law and University policies and procedures.

Voluntary, Confidential, and Anonymous Reporting

Individuals who do not wish to make a police report may have options for making a voluntary or anonymous report for purposes of including information in the University's Clery Act crime statistics. Anonymous reports may be submitted through the University's designated anonymous reporting mechanism under Campus Safety.

Piedmont University Campus Police cannot guarantee the confidentiality of reports made directly to law enforcement. Individuals who wish to maintain confidentiality should discuss available confidential reporting options with a professional counselor or other appropriate confidential resource.

Non-identifying information about Clery-reportable crimes may also be provided to Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) for purposes of complying with the University's Clery reporting obligations.

Individuals may submit an anonymous report through the University's designated anonymous reporting mechanism:

- Anonymous Reporting Tip Line: Anonymous Tip Line

The anonymous reporting mechanism is accessible through the University website under Campus Safety.

Piedmont University Campus Police cannot guarantee the confidentiality of reports made directly to law enforcement. Police reports and records may be subject to disclosure under applicable Georgia law. Individuals who wish to maintain confidentiality should discuss available confidential reporting options with a professional counselor or other appropriate confidential resource.

Campus Security Authorities

“Campus Security Authority” (CSA) is a Clery-specific term that includes four categories of individuals or organizations associated with an institution:

- A campus police department or campus security department of an institution.

- Any individual or individuals who have responsibility for campus security, but who do not constitute a campus police or campus security department.
- Any individual or organization specified in the institution's statement of campus security policy as an individual or organization to which students and employees should report criminal offenses.
- An official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including, but not limited to, student housing, student discipline, and campus judicial proceedings.

An official who is functioning as a professional counselor is not considered a CSA while acting in that counseling capacity. A professional counselor is an individual whose official responsibilities include providing mental health counseling to members of the University community and who is functioning within the scope of the counselor's license or certification.

Piedmont University provides annual training to Campus Security Authorities regarding their responsibilities under the Clery Act, including the University's procedures for reporting Clery crimes.

Piedmont University Campus Security Authorities

Piedmont University has designated the following individuals and groups as Campus Security Authorities, as applicable to their university responsibilities:

- Demorest Campus Police: 706-939-1349 | campuspolice@piedmont.edu
- Athens Campus Director of Administrative Services: 706-433-1785 | jstenander@piedmont.edu
- Athens Campus Security: 706-433-1789 | campuspolice@piedmont.edu
- Title IX Coordinator: 706-778-8500, ext. 1504 | titleix@piedmont.edu
- Residence Life staff: 706-778-8500, ext. 1305
- Advisors to officially recognized student organizations and student activity coordinators
- Faculty members accompanying students on field trips, study-abroad programs, or other University-sponsored educational travel
- Athletic coaches and assistant coaches
- President: 706-776-1100 | president@piedmont.edu
- Vice President of Administration and Finance/CFO: 706-778-8500, ext. 1349 | kharris@piedmont.edu

- Vice President of Academic Affairs: 706-778-8500, ext. 2838 | jbruns@piedmont.edu
- Vice President of Student Affairs: 706-778-8500, ext. 1050 | kcrawford@piedmont.edu
- AVP of Advancement and Development: growell@piedmont.edu
- AVP of Human Resources and Compliance: 706-778-8500, ext. 2858 | lroller@piedmont.edu
- Director of Intercollegiate Athletics: 706-778-8500, ext. 1284 | jpurdy@piedmont.edu

Reporting to a Campus Security Authority

A crime is considered reported for Clery purposes when it is brought to the attention of a Campus Security Authority, Campus Police, a designated campus security official, or local law enforcement by a victim, witness, other third party, or alleged offender, regardless of affiliation with the University.

CSAs must submit information about Clery-reportable crimes occurring within Clery geography in accordance with University procedures. CSAs are not responsible for investigating crimes, determining whether a crime occurred, or persuading an individual to contact law enforcement.

To the extent possible, CSAs should protect the privacy of the person reporting the incident and should not include personally identifying information about the victim in a Clery report unless necessary for the University's response.

Professional Counselors and Confidential Reporting

Piedmont University's professional counseling staff include:

- Director of Counseling Services, Sean Williamson: 706-778-8500, ext. 1295 | swilliamson@piedmont.edu
- Counselor, Lisa Shurtleff: 706-778-8500, ext. 1259 | lshurtleff@piedmont.edu
- Counselor, Alisha Crump Dickerson: 706-778-8500, ext. 2821 | adickerson@piedmont.edu

Professional counselors functioning within the scope of their professional counseling responsibilities are not considered CSAs while acting in that capacity. Individuals seeking counseling may discuss reporting options and available resources with a professional counselor and may decide whether to pursue a report to law enforcement or the University, consistent with applicable law and University policy.

Criminal Activity Off-Campus

When an off-campus incident involves a Piedmont University student or otherwise affects the University community, the University may, as appropriate, assist and cooperate with local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies in accordance with applicable law and University policies.

Piedmont University Campus Police maintain professional working relationships with local law enforcement agencies and communicate and coordinate with those agencies, as appropriate, regarding criminal incidents occurring on campus, in areas immediately surrounding campus, or in other locations where there may be a connection to the University community.

Piedmont University does not operate or recognize any off-campus student organizations or facilities that meet the Clery Act definition of a recognized off-campus student organization or facility.

Timely Warnings

The Piedmont University Campus Police Department is responsible for issuing timely warnings in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), 20 U.S.C. § 1092(f), and applicable federal regulations. A timely warning is considered when a crime that is reportable under the Clery Act is reported to Campus Police, a Campus Security Authority (CSA), or local law enforcement and the University determines that the incident represents a serious or continuing threat to the safety of students or employees.

Timely warnings may be issued for Clery-reportable crimes, including criminal homicide, sex offenses, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, arson, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and other Clery-reportable crimes when the circumstances indicate that the incident may represent a serious or continuing threat to the campus community. The University will consider the facts and circumstances of each incident when determining whether a timely warning is appropriate.

Anyone with information regarding a crime or incident that may pose a serious or continuing threat to the campus community should promptly report the incident to Piedmont University Campus Police or the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Demorest Campus:

113 Rhode Island Street (Getman-Babcock Residence Hall)

Email: campuspolice@piedmont.edu

Athens Campus:

Director of Administrative Services or BOS Security (after hours)

1282 Prince Avenue

Phone: 706-433-1789, ext. 8303

Email: campuspolice@piedmont.edu

Emergency assistance is available by dialing 911. Individuals are encouraged to notify Piedmont University Campus Police or Athens Campus Security, as appropriate, when an emergency or criminal incident occurs so that the University can coordinate an appropriate response and provide assistance to emergency personnel.

Campus Police and applicable campus security personnel are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

When a determination is made that a timely warning is warranted, Campus Police, in consultation with appropriate University officials, will take reasonable steps to provide notification to the campus community in a manner that is timely and that withholds the names and other identifying information of victims, as appropriate. Timely warnings may be issued through the University's e-alert notification system, Piedmont University mobile application, campus email, website, or other communication methods determined appropriate under the circumstances.

A timely warning may include some or all of the following information, as appropriate:

- The date, time, and location of the reported crime or incident;
- A general description or summary of the incident;
- A description of the suspect and/or vehicle, if available and appropriate to release;
- Information regarding the potential threat to the campus community;
- Recommended safety precautions or actions; and
- Other incident-specific information or instructions that may assist members of the University community in protecting their safety.

For certain off-campus crimes, the University may issue a timely warning or other safety advisory when the incident is determined to represent a serious or continuing threat to students or employees, and the circumstances otherwise meet the requirements for a timely warning.

Piedmont University encourages all students, faculty, staff, and community members to promptly report emergencies, crimes, suspicious activity, or other concerns affecting campus safety. Reports may be made to Campus Police at 706-939-1349 or to 911 in an emergency. Suspicious or concerning activity may include, but is not limited to, suspicious persons or behavior in parking areas, around vehicles, inside university buildings, or around residence halls.

Emergency Notifications

Piedmont University maintains emergency response, notification, and evacuation procedures designed to provide timely information and instructions during significant emergencies or dangerous situations.

When an emergency or dangerous situation poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees on campus, the University will initiate emergency notification procedures in accordance with applicable requirements. Authorized University personnel assess reported situations, determine whether notification is warranted, identify the appropriate population to notify, and use available emergency communication methods.

Emergency notifications may include instructions regarding evacuation, sheltering, or other protective actions. Students and employees are expected to follow instructions from Campus Police, Security, emergency personnel, or other authorized University personnel.

The University maintains an Emergency Preparedness Plan addressing emergency response, evacuation, notification, and coordination with appropriate University and public safety personnel. Emergency procedures are reviewed and tested periodically in accordance with applicable requirements.

Emergency Tests and Evacuation Drills

The University periodically conducts tests, exercises, and evacuation drills to evaluate emergency preparedness and reinforce emergency response procedures. The University documents required emergency notification and evacuation exercises in accordance with applicable requirements.

Evacuation Procedures

When evacuation is ordered, individuals should use the nearest safe exit, follow posted evacuation routes and instructions from University or emergency personnel, and proceed to the designated assembly or safe area. Individuals should not re-enter an evacuated building until authorized by emergency personnel or University officials.

Emergency Preparedness Plan

Piedmont University maintains an Emergency Preparedness Plan that provides general guidelines for preparing for and responding to emergencies and other critical incidents. The plan is designed to assist University administration, faculty, staff, students, and visitors in understanding appropriate actions to take during a variety of emergency situations and to promote a coordinated and effective response.

The first step in an emergency is to report the incident to the appropriate emergency response agency. When immediate emergency assistance is needed, individuals should call 911. Campus Police or campus security should also be notified, when appropriate, so that the University can coordinate its response and assist emergency personnel.

Demorest Campus Police: 706-939-1349

Athens-Clarke County Emergency Services: 911

Athens Campus Security: 706-433-1789

Emergencies may occur with little or no warning. Members of the University community are encouraged to familiarize themselves with emergency procedures before an emergency occurs and to follow instructions provided by Campus Police, emergency responders, and authorized University officials during an emergency.

The Emergency Preparedness Plan addresses procedures for a variety of emergency situations, including but not limited to Emergency Notification Procedures, Weather-Related Emergencies, Medical Emergencies, and Campus Emergencies.

Through the Emergency Preparedness Plan, emergency preparedness activities, and individual readiness, Piedmont University seeks to maintain a state of preparedness and promote the safety and well-being of the University community.

The current Emergency Preparedness Plan is available on the University's website.

Security and Access to Campus Facilities and Maintenance

During normal business hours, Piedmont University facilities are generally open to students, employees, parents, contractors, guests, and other authorized visitors, except for certain residential facilities and other areas with restricted access. Individual facilities may have operating hours that vary depending on the academic calendar, University operations, and the purpose of the facility.

During non-business hours, access to most University facilities is restricted and generally requires an authorized key, access control device, or permission from Campus Police or other authorized University personnel. Certain facilities or areas may remain accessible during non-business hours, including the dining hall, designated laundry facilities in residence halls, and the lobby of Mayflower Residence Hall, as applicable.

During periods of extended University closure or restricted access, Campus Police may admit individuals to university facilities on a case-by-case basis, consistent with university policies and safety considerations.

Residence halls are secured 24 hours a day. Access to residence halls and other residential facilities is controlled through designated entrances and access procedures. Students and authorized residents are expected to follow University policies regarding building access and are encouraged not to prop open or otherwise compromise secured entrances.

Certain University facilities maintain individual operating hours. For example, facilities such as Arrendale Library and the Student Commons on the Demorest Campus may have hours that vary throughout the academic year. These facilities are secured in accordance with schedules established by university administration and the department responsible for the facility.

Emergencies or other circumstances may require changes to normal operating hours or access procedures. The University may temporarily restrict access to buildings, facilities, or campus areas when necessary to protect the health and safety of students, employees, visitors, or emergency personnel.

Piedmont University regularly evaluates campus facilities and grounds for conditions that may affect safety and security. Security concerns involving landscaping, exterior and interior lighting, locks, doors, alarms, access control systems, or other physical security features may be identified through routine observations, reports from members of the University community, or periodic reviews.

When security or safety concerns are identified, appropriate University personnel evaluate the concern and determine whether corrective action, maintenance, repair, or other measures are necessary. Administrators and representatives from Student Life, Facilities Management, Campus Police, student government, and other appropriate University departments may participate in reviewing and addressing identified security concerns.

Alcohol and Drugs

Piedmont University is committed to maintaining a safe, healthy, and supportive educational and working environment. The University prohibits the unlawful possession, use, distribution, manufacture, or sale of alcohol and controlled substances and enforces applicable federal, state, and local laws, as well as University policies.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

Piedmont University prohibits the unlawful possession, use, manufacture, or distribution of controlled substances and prohibits alcohol-related conduct in violation of applicable law and University policy.

Enforcement and Sanctions

Violations of federal, state, local, or University alcohol and drug policies may result in University disciplinary and, where applicable, referral to law enforcement. Applicable federal, state, and local laws may also impose criminal or civil penalties.

Education, Prevention, and Resources

Piedmont University provides education and prevention programs designed to promote awareness of the risks associated with alcohol and drug use and to provide students and employees with information concerning prevention, intervention, treatment, and support resources.

Information regarding available counseling, treatment, rehabilitation, and other assistance programs is provided through University resources and other community resources.

The University also maintains a Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention Program and distributes required drug and alcohol prevention information to students and employees in accordance with applicable federal requirements.

Additional Information

Detailed University conduct standards, procedures, sanctions, drug and alcohol testing provisions, and applicable employee and student requirements are contained in the Student Handbook and other applicable University policies.

For the complete and current policy language, including specific restrictions applicable to university housing, University-sponsored activities, and disciplinary procedures, please consult the Piedmont University Student Handbook.

Piedmont University Student Handbook 2026-2027

University Judicial System

Piedmont University maintains a student conduct system designed to promote a safe, respectful, and educational campus environment and to address alleged violations of university policies and standards of conduct.

Students are expected to comply with University policies, the Student Code of Conduct, and applicable federal, state, and local laws. Alleged violations may be addressed through the University's established student conduct and disciplinary processes.

Student Conduct Process

Piedmont University maintains a student conduct process for addressing alleged violations of University policy. The applicable process provides notice and an opportunity to participate and may include investigation, an administrative or other designated resolution process, sanctions when responsibility is established, and appeal rights as provided by University policy.

Sanctions

Sanctions may include educational requirements, warnings, probation, restrictions or loss of privileges, restitution, suspension, dismissal, or other sanctions authorized by University policy.

Appeals

Students may have appeal rights depending on the type of conduct matter and the applicable University policy. Appeals are reviewed in accordance with the procedures and grounds established by the applicable policy.

Student Handbook

The Piedmont University Student Handbook contains the University's complete Student Code of Conduct, disciplinary procedures, definitions of prohibited conduct, available sanctions, appeal procedures, and other requirements governing the student conduct process.

Because University policies and procedures may be updated, the Student Handbook should be consulted for the most current and complete information.

Piedmont University Student Handbook 2026-2027

Firearms and Weapons

Piedmont University regulates firearms, weapons, fireworks, ammunition, explosives, and other prohibited items in accordance with applicable Georgia law and University policy. The University's weapons restrictions apply to students, faculty, staff, visitors, contractors, and other individuals while on University property or participating in University-sponsored activities, subject to applicable legal exceptions.

Licensed or otherwise lawfully authorized public safety or law enforcement officers may be subject to exceptions consistent with applicable law and University policy.

Individuals who become aware of a firearm, weapon, explosive device, or other prohibited item on University property should promptly notify Campus Police or, when appropriate, call 911. Violations of University policy may result in disciplinary action and, where applicable, referral to law enforcement.

Sexual Misconduct

Title IX Policy Statement

Piedmont University prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex and prohibits sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and retaliation, as prohibited by applicable law and University policy. The University maintains procedures for receiving, investigating, and responding to reports of prohibited conduct and for providing appropriate support and resources to affected individuals.

Reporting Options

Individuals may report an incident to the University, to law enforcement, to both, or may seek assistance and resources without making a report. Reports to the University may be made to the Title IX Coordinator or another designated University official in accordance with the University's Title IX/Sexual Misconduct Policy. Individuals experiencing an emergency or immediate threat to safety should call 911.

Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Coordinators

Piedmont University has designated the following individuals to serve in official capacity regarding Title IX reporting. The University shall notify, at least annually, students, employees, applicants for admission and employment, the name, title, office address, e-mail address, and telephone number of the Title IX Coordinator. The University shall prominently display on its website the contact information of the Title IX Coordinator.

The Title IX Coordinator, assisted by Deputy Coordinators, is responsible for the following:

- Ensuring Title IX compliance
- Assessing initial intake reports
- Knowledge in University policies and procedures
- Provides information about resources available to both the Complainant and the Respondent
- Assigning appropriate investigators to individual cases
- Identifying the appropriate University policy to resolve the complaint in a prompt and equitable manner
- Tracking and monitoring incidents of sex discrimination and sexual misconduct
- Providing information on options for complaint resolution
- Coordinating education and prevention efforts
- Reporting crimes to the Clery Administrator for reporting in the Annual Security Report (ASR)
- Confidential Reporting on Campus

Formal Complaint

Upon receipt of a Formal Complaint, the University will take prompt and equitable action to eliminate the Prohibited Conduct (if any), prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. In addition, the University will fulfill its obligations under the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (“VAWA”) amendments to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (“Clery Act”) in response to reported Prohibited

Conduct. Students, employees, or third parties who are found to have violated the Sexual Misconduct Policy may face disciplinary action up to and including expulsion (students) or termination of employment or contractual relationship (employees or third-party contractors).

Definitions

This section defines specifically prohibited types of conduct based on sex including sex -based harassment and discrimination, and sexual misconduct.

- A. Sexual Harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more the following points:
- i. An employee of the University conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the University on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (also known as Quid Pro Quo harassment).
 - ii. Unwelcome conduct is determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the University's education program or activity (also known as Hostile Environment).
 - iii. Sexual Assault (defined below); or Dating Violence (defined below); or Domestic Violence (defined below) or Stalking (defined below).

Both women and men may be sexually harassed. Sexual harassment may occur between males and females and between persons of the same sex. Both subordinates and co-workers may be victims of sexual harassment. While a co-worker does not have the direct ability to hire or fire another co-worker, the person may influence a job evaluation or create an intolerable working environment which may be handled through the Title IX process or Title VII of the Civil Rights Act.

Sexual harassment may be physical and/ or verbal in nature. Conduct that may be considered sexual harassment include, but is not limited to the following examples of Sexual harassment:

- Unwanted sexual advances or comments
- Inappropriate or unwelcome touching of a person's body
- Implied or overt threats of punitive employment or academic actions as a result of rejection of sexual advances

More subtle incidents may also be considered sexual harassment. Examples of more subtle sexual harassment include, but are not limited to the following:

- Sending sexually oriented texts, emails, or voice mails
- Sexual jokes
- Repeatedly asking for a date when the person has declined
- Display of sexually oriented cartoons, objects, posters
- Indirect sexual innuendo such as voice inflection when complimenting appearance or gazing at parts of the body other than the face.

B. Sex-Based Harassment means harassment based on sex, which may include acts of aggression, intimidation, or hostility, whether verbal, physical, graphic, or otherwise. To qualify as Sex -Based Harassment, the conduct need not involve conduct of a sexual nature.

Harassing conduct can take many forms. The determination of whether an environment is hostile is based on the totality of the circumstances, including but not limited to:

- The frequency of the conduct.
- The nature and severity of the conduct.
- Whether the conduct was physically threatening.
- The effect of the conduct on the Complainant's mental or emotional state, with consideration of whether the conduct unreasonably interfered with the Complainant's educational or work performance and/or University programs or activities.
- Whether the conduct was directed at more than one person.
- Whether the conduct arose in the context of other discriminatory conduct.
- Whether the conduct implicates concerns related to academic freedom or protected speech.

A single isolated incident may create a hostile environment if the incident is sufficiently severe, particularly if the conduct is physical.

C. Sexual Assault means an offense classified as a forcible or non-forcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as defined in 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)(v). Sexual intercourse includes vaginal or anal penetration, however slight, with a body part (e.g., penis, tongue, finger, hand) or object, or oral penetration involving mouth to genital contact.

D. Crime Definitions from the National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) User Manual (From the Federal Bureau of Investigation Uniform Crime Reporting Program Sex Offenses)

- i. Fondling - The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.
- ii. Forcible – Any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.
- iii. Forcible Rape (Except Statutory Rape – The carnal knowledge of a person, forcibly and/or against that person's will or not forcibly or against the person's will in instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- iv. Forcible Sodomy – Oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will or not forcibly or against the person's will in instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her youth or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- v. Incest - Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- vi. Sexual Assault with an Object – To use an object or instrument to unlawfully penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will or not forcibly or against the person's will in instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her youth or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- vii. Sex Offenses, Nonforcible (Except Prostitution Offenses) Unlawful, nonforcible sexual intercourse.
- viii. Statutory Rape - Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

- E. Domestic Violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim (ages 11-24) who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction. [34 USC 12291(a)(8)]
- F. Dating Violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
- The length of the relationship
 - The type of relationship
 - The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship [34 USC 12291(a)(10)]
- G. Stalking means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:
- Fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
 - Suffer substantial emotional distress. [34 USC 12291(a)(30)]

Confidential Resources and Support

Where applicable, confidential resources may provide information, support, and assistance in understanding available options. Confidentiality and reporting obligations may vary depending on the resource and circumstances. Individuals may seek medical care, counseling, advocacy, and other available services regardless of whether they choose to pursue a University or criminal process.

Supportive Measures

Supportive Measures are non-disciplinary services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to both the Complainant and the Respondent before or after the filing of a Formal Complaint or where no Formal Complaint has been filed. These Supportive Measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University's education program or activity without unreasonably burdening Complainant and Respondent, including measures designed to protect the safety of all Parties or the University's educational environment, or deter sexual harassment. The University offers support to Complainants and Respondents through access to the following services:

A. Sample Supportive Measures for Students

- Access to counseling services on campus
- Change in on-campus housing assignment and assistance from University support staff in completing housing relocation
- Provide academic support services, such as tutoring, extensions of deadlines or other course-related adjustments, class schedules
- Change in work schedule or job assignment
- Mutual restrictions on contact between the parties
- Provide information regarding off-campus services
- Provide other Supportive Measures as appropriate

B. Sample Supportive Measures for Employees

- Modification of work schedule
- Mutual restrictions on contact between the parties
- Changes in work or on-campus housing locations
- Leaves of absence
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of campus
- Provide other Supportive Measures as appropriate
- A Complainant or a Respondent may request a “No-Contact Order” or other protection, or the University may choose to use Supportive Measures at its discretion to ensure the safety of all Parties, the broader University community, and/or the integrity of the process.

The University will maintain the privacy of any Supportive Measures provided under the Sexual Misconduct Policy to the extent practicable and will promptly address any violation of the Supportive Measures put in place. All individuals are encouraged to report concerns about failure of another individual to abide by any restrictions imposed by Supportive Measures. The University will take immediate and responsive action to enforce a previously implemented restriction if such restriction was violated.

Preservation of Evidence and Law Enforcement Options

Individuals who experience sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking are encouraged to seek prompt medical attention and consider preserving evidence that may be relevant to a criminal investigation or University process. Individuals may report to law enforcement and may seek information concerning protective orders and other available legal remedies.

Prevention and Awareness

Piedmont University provides education and prevention programming addressing sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, consent, bystander intervention, healthy relationships, and available resources, as applicable. Required student and employee training is described elsewhere in this report.

University Grievance Procedures

Reports of prohibited conduct are addressed under the University's applicable Title IX/Sexual Misconduct Policy and grievance procedures. The applicable policy describes the process for reporting, review and investigation, notice, participation by the parties, determination of responsibility, applicable standard of evidence, sanctions, appeals, and other rights and responsibilities.

Retaliation

Retaliation against a person because the person reported conduct, participated in a University process, or otherwise exercised rights under applicable policy is prohibited. Concerns regarding retaliation may be reported to the Title IX Coordinator or through other reporting channels identified in University policy.

Additional Information

The complete, current Title IX/Sexual Misconduct Policy contains the University's detailed definitions, jurisdiction and scope provisions, reporting procedures, supportive measures, grievance procedures, sanctions, appeals, recordkeeping provisions, resources, and other applicable requirements. The complete policy is maintained through the University's Title IX/Compliance resources and should be consulted for the most current and complete information.

Education and Training: Students and Employees

Piedmont University is committed to promoting a safe, supportive, and respectful environment for all members of the University community. As part of this commitment, the University provides required education and training designed to promote awareness, prevention, and appropriate responses to issues affecting campus safety and well-being.

Student Training

All Piedmont University students are required to complete assigned training courses addressing the following topics:

- Sexual Assault Prevention

- Alcohol and Drug Education
- Hazing Awareness
- Mandated Reporting

These training courses provide students with information regarding prevention, awareness, applicable University policies and procedures, available resources, and their responsibilities as members of the University community.

Employee Training

All Piedmont University employees are required to complete assigned training courses addressing the following topics:

- Clery Act & Campus Security
- Title IX
- Hazing Awareness
- Mandated Reporting

These training courses provide employees with information regarding their responsibilities under applicable University policies and procedures, including recognizing and responding appropriately to concerns involving sexual misconduct, hazing, and reportable incidents.

Orientation and Prevention Education

During Welcome Week, Piedmont University provides orientation and educational programming designed to introduce new students to important campus safety, prevention, and community expectations. Programming may address topics such as sexual assault prevention, consent, healthy relationships, bystander intervention, alcohol and drug awareness, hazing prevention, and available campus and community resources.

These orientation activities supplement the University's required online training and provide students with opportunities to learn about safety resources, prevention strategies, and their responsibilities as members of the University community.

Access to Required Training

All required student and employee training courses are assigned and made available through the individual's Canvas dashboard. Students and employees are responsible for completing their assigned training by the deadlines established by the University.

The University reviews and updates its required education and training programs as appropriate to address applicable federal and state requirements, University policies, and the safety and well-being of the University community.

Sexual Offender Registration

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000 requires institutions of higher education to provide the campus community with information concerning where law enforcement agency information about registered sex offenders may be obtained.

Piedmont University provides access to the Georgia Sex Offender Registry maintained by the Georgia Bureau of Investigation (GBI). The registry provides publicly available information concerning individuals required to register under Georgia law. Members of the University community may also obtain information from the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the applicable area.

The Georgia Sex Offender Registry may be used to search for registered sex offenders throughout the state. Registry information is provided by other agencies and may change over time.

Missing Student Notification and Procedures

Piedmont University is committed to promoting the safety and well-being of all members of the University community. In accordance with the Higher Education Act of 2008, 20 U.S.C. § 1092(j), the University has established the following Missing Student Notification and Procedures for students residing in on-campus housing.

Registration for Confidential Contact Information

Students residing in on-campus housing may designate a confidential contact person who will be notified if the University determines that the student is missing.

1. A student may designate a confidential contact who will be notified in accordance with this policy if Campus Police or local law enforcement determines that the student is missing.
2. The confidential contact may be different from the emergency contact information maintained by the Office of Student Affairs. A student may designate more than one confidential contact.
3. Confidential contact information will be accessible only to authorized University officials and law enforcement personnel involved in the missing person investigation, except as otherwise required or permitted by law.
4. Students may designate a confidential contact at any time by completing a Confidential Contact Form with the Office of Student Affairs.
5. Students who designate confidential contact are responsible for ensuring that the contact information provided is accurate and current. Students may update their confidential contact information by submitting a new Confidential Contact Form to the Office of Student Affairs.

Missing Student Procedures

1. Any member of the Piedmont University community who has reason to believe that a student may be missing should immediately report the concern to Piedmont University Campus Police at 706-939-1349. If Campus Police are unavailable, the concern should be reported to the local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction.

Missing student concerns may also be reported to the following University offices, which will promptly refer the report to Campus Police:

- Office of Student Life and Leadership
 - Office of Residence Life
2. Upon receiving a report that a student may be missing, Campus Police will gather information and document the circumstances of the report. Information collected may include, but is not limited to:
 - The name and contact information of the person reporting the student missing;
 - The student's name, identifying information, and physical description;
 - The circumstances and location where the student were last seen or heard from;
 - Information regarding the student's known associates, addresses, and contact information, when available; and
 - The names and addresses of individuals known to have been present at the location where the student was last seen, when applicable.
 3. Campus Police will assess the circumstances of the report and determine whether the student is missing. Factors considered may include, but are not limited to:
 - The length of time the student has been out of contact after reasonable efforts to establish contact has been unsuccessful;
 - Circumstances indicating that criminal activity may be involved;
 - Circumstances indicating that the student's physical safety may be at risk;
 - A medical condition or other circumstance that may place the student's health or safety at risk; and
 - A disability or other condition that may increase the risk to the student's health or safety.
 4. Campus Police may initiate a missing student investigation and appropriate notification procedures before 24 hours have elapsed when the circumstances indicate that a student may be missing or that the student's health or safety may be at risk. The University does not require a 24-hour waiting period before initiating appropriate action.

5. For students residing in on-campus housing, once Campus Police determines that the student is missing, the University will initiate the notification procedures described below in accordance with applicable law and this policy.

Notification Procedures

1. If Campus Police or local law enforcement determines that a student residing in on-campus housing is missing, the University will, within 24 hours of that determination:
 - Notify the confidential contact designated by the student, if one has been provided;
 - Notify the parent or guardian of a student who is under 18 years of age and not an emancipated minor; and
 - Notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency, unless the local law enforcement agency made the determination that the student is missing.
2. If Campus Police determines that a student who is not residing in on-campus housing is missing, the University will notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency.
3. Nothing in these procedures prevents Campus Police from initiating notification procedures or taking other appropriate actions before 24 hours have elapsed when, based on the circumstances, Campus Police determines that an earlier response or notification is warranted.
4. The University will cooperate with local law enforcement and other appropriate agencies during a missing student investigation and will provide information as permitted or required by applicable law.

Definition of Reportable Crimes and Crime Statistics

Piedmont University prepares and reports campus crime statistics in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), 20 U.S.C. § 1092(f), and its implementing regulations, 34 C.F.R. § 668.46. The University uses the applicable Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program definitions, including the National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) definitions applicable to sex offenses, and the FBI's Hate Crime Data Collection Guidelines for classifying and reporting Clery Act crime statistics. The FBI transitioned to NIBRS as the national standard for UCR crime data collection beginning January 1, 2021.

Clery Act reporting requirements are separate from the requirements applicable to law enforcement agencies submitting crime data to the FBI. An institution must use the Clery Act definitions and classification requirements when compiling its campus crime statistics. A Clery Act crime may be reportable even when the University does not investigate the incident, make a finding of responsibility, or disclose personally identifiable information about the victim.

For purposes of the Annual Security Report (ASR), the University reports statistics for the three most recent calendar years for specified crimes that occur within the University's Clery geography and are reported to local law enforcement or to a Campus Security Authority (CSA) for purposes of Clery Act reporting. The reportable categories include primary crimes, arrests and referrals for disciplinary action for specified violations, hate crimes, and dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking.

Primary Crimes

Murder and Non-Negligent Manslaughter: The willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.

Manslaughter by Negligence: The killing of another person through gross negligence. Deaths resulting from a person's own negligence, accidental deaths not resulting from gross negligence, and traffic fatalities are not included in this category.

Arson: Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, or similar property.

Robbery: The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.

Aggravated Assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. The attack is usually accompanied by the use of a weapon or by a means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Burglary: The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft.

Motor Vehicle Theft: The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.

Sex Offenses

For Clery Act reporting purposes, sex offenses include rape, fondling, incest, and statutory rape. The definitions used for these offenses are based on the FBI's UCR/NIBRS definitions.

Rape: The penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim. The definition applies regardless of the victim's or offender's gender and includes circumstances in which physical force is not involved.

Fondling: The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances in which the victim is incapable of giving consent because of the victim's age or because of the victim's temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

Incest: Nonforcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

Statutory Rape: Nonforcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Offenses

Domestic Violence: A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by:

- A current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
- A person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
- A person who is cohabiting with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
- A person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the applicable jurisdiction; or
- Any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the applicable jurisdiction.

Dating Violence: Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship is determined based on consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

- Fear of the person's safety or the safety of others; or
- Suffer substantial emotional distress.

Hate Crimes

A hate crime is a criminal offense reported to local law enforcement or a Campus Security Authority that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias against the victim's actual or perceived membership in a protected category.

For Clery Act purposes, hate crimes include any of the primary crimes listed above, as well as larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation, and destruction/damage/vandalism of property, when the offense manifests evidence of bias based on one or more of the following categories:

race, religion, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, ethnicity, national origin, or disability.

The applicable bias categories are defined as follows:

- Race: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons who possess common physical characteristics genetically transmitted by descent and heredity that distinguish them as a distinct division of humankind.
- Religion: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons who share the same religious beliefs regarding the origin and purpose of the universe and the existence or nonexistence of a supreme being.
- Sexual Orientation: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their actual or perceived sexual orientation.
- Gender: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons because those persons are male or female.
- Gender Identity: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a person or group of persons based on their actual or perceived gender identity.
- Ethnicity: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons of the same ethnic background.
- National Origin: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their actual or perceived national origin.
- Disability: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their physical or mental disabilities, whether the disability is temporary or permanent, congenital or acquired by heredity, accident, injury, advanced age, or illness.

Arrests and Referrals for Disciplinary Action

The University reports statistics for arrests and referrals for disciplinary action for the following offenses when applicable:

Liquor Law Violations: The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, or use of alcoholic beverages. This category does not include driving under the influence or public drunkenness.

Drug Law Violations: The violation of laws prohibiting the production, distribution, and/or use of certain controlled substances and the equipment or devices utilized in their preparation and/or use. This includes the unlawful cultivation, manufacture, distribution, sale, purchase, use, possession, transportation, or importation of any controlled drug or narcotic substance.

Illegal Weapons Possession: The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices, or other deadly weapons.

The University reports both arrests and persons referred for campus disciplinary action for liquor law violations, drug law violations, and illegal weapons possession, as required by the Clery Act.

Classification and Reporting of Crimes

For Clery Act purposes, the University records crimes according to the applicable Clery Act definitions and classification rules. A reported crime is not excluded from Clery statistics solely because the University or another authority does not substantiate the allegation, because no disciplinary action is taken, or because a criminal prosecution does not occur. Clery Act reporting does not require the University to initiate an investigation or disclose personally identifiable information about a victim.

In limited circumstances, a reported crime may be determined to be unfounded and excluded from Clery statistics when sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel have fully investigated the reported crime and, based on the results of that investigation and the evidence, made a formal determination that the report was false or baseless.

The University uses the definitions and classification standards applicable to the Clery Act when preparing its Annual Security Report and submitting required crime statistics to the U.S. Department of Education.

Geographic Descriptions

For purposes of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), Clery geography includes buildings and property that are part of the University's campus, the University's non-campus buildings and property, and public property within or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. The University uses these geographic classifications when determining which locations are included in the crime statistics reported in the Annual Security Report (ASR).

Piedmont University maintains campuses and University-controlled properties in Demorest, Athens, and Clayton, Georgia. Each location is evaluated according to the federal Clery Act definitions to determine the appropriate geographic classification for crime reporting purposes.

Campus

Under the Clery Act, campus includes:

- Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and

- Any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to the area identified above that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes, such as a food or other retail vendor.

Demorest Campus

Piedmont University's Demorest Campus is the University's primary residential campus and includes academic, administrative, residential, athletic, and student-life facilities located within the University's reasonably contiguous campus area. The Demorest Campus is located at 1021 Central Avenue, Demorest, Georgia 30535. Piedmont identifies the Demorest location as its main residential campus.

The Demorest Campus includes, but is not limited to:

- Academic and administrative buildings;
- Residence halls and other residential facilities;
- Student Commons and student-life facilities;
- Library and academic support facilities;
- Athletic facilities;
- Performing arts and music facilities;
- Outdoor athletic and recreational facilities; and
- Other University-owned or controlled buildings and property located within the reasonably contiguous campus area.

Buildings and property that meet the federal definition of campus and are located within the reasonably contiguous Demorest campus area are included in the University's Clery geography.

Athens Campus

Piedmont University's Athens Campus is a separate campus located in Athens, Georgia. Piedmont identifies Athens as one of its two University campuses and describes the Athens location as a satellite/branch campus serving students in the Athens area.

Because the Athens Campus is a separate campus location rather than part of the reasonably contiguous geographic area of the Demorest Campus, the Athens Campus is treated as a separate campus for Clery Act reporting purposes.

Crime statistics for the Athens Campus are reported based on crimes occurring on the campus and on applicable public property within the University's Clery geography.

Piedmont University provides security services at the Athens Campus. Current University information states that security is located at the front desk of the Athens facility and patrols the campus during evening and overnight hours.

Non-Campus Buildings or Property

Under the Clery Act, non-campus building or property means:

- Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization officially recognized by the institution; or
- Any building or property owned or controlled by the institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

A property is not considered non-campus solely because it is located away from the University's primary campus. The University considers the applicable federal criteria, including ownership or control, the property's use in support of the University's educational purposes, frequency of student use, and whether the property is within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area as a campus.

Piedmont Village

Piedmont Village is University-controlled residential property located in Demorest outside the reasonably contiguous area of the main Demorest Campus. Piedmont Village is treated as non-campus property for Clery Act reporting purposes when the applicable federal criteria are met.

Crimes occurring at Piedmont Village that meet the applicable Clery Act reporting requirements are included in the University's ASR statistics under the non-campus category.

Lillian E. Smith Center

The Lillian E. Smith Center is a Piedmont University property located at 496 Hershey Lane, Clayton, Georgia 30525. The Center encompasses approximately 150 acres and is located approximately 33 miles from Piedmont's Demorest Campus. Piedmont describes the Center as an educational center and artist retreat that supports recreational, social, and instructional activities. The property includes bunkhouses that are primarily used to house students, faculty, and other groups participating in educational and recreational activities.

Because the Lillian E. Smith Center is University-controlled, is used in support of the University's educational purposes, is used by students, and is not located within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area as the Demorest Campus, it is treated as non-campus property for Clery Act reporting purposes.

Crimes occurring at the Lillian E. Smith Center that meet the applicable Clery Act reporting requirements are included in the University's ASR statistics under the non-campus category.

Public Property

Under the Clery Act, public property includes all public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities, that is within the campus or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

For Piedmont University, applicable public property within the University's Clery geography includes public streets, sidewalks, thoroughfares, and parking facilities located within or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the University's Demorest and Athens campuses.

Public property is included in Clery geography only when it meets the federal definition. Public property located elsewhere in the surrounding community is not included merely because it is near a Piedmont University campus.

Other University Locations and Activities

Piedmont University periodically reviews University-owned and University-controlled properties, facilities, programs, and student activities to determine whether additional locations meet the federal definitions of campus or non-campus buildings or property.

University-owned or controlled property is not automatically classified as campus or non-campus property solely because the University owns or uses the property. The University considers the applicable Clery Act requirements, including the property's location, ownership or control, use in direct support of or in relation to the University's educational purposes, and frequency of student use.

Locations associated with university-sponsored travel or temporary activities are evaluated based on the specific facts and circumstances of the activity and the federal Clery Act requirements. Where a location meets the applicable definition of Clery geography, qualifying crimes occurring at that location are included in the University's Clery Act crime statistics.

Clery Geography and the Annual Security Report

For purposes of the University's Annual Security Report, Clery crime statistics are collected and reported for qualifying crimes occurring within the University's Clery geography that are reported to local law enforcement or to a Campus Security Authority for the purpose of Clery Act reporting. Clery geography includes the University's campus locations, applicable non-campus buildings and property, and applicable public property within or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campuses.

Piedmont University's Clery geography therefore includes:

1. Demorest Campus — the University's primary residential campus;
2. Athens Campus — a separate Piedmont University campus;

3. Piedmont Village — University-controlled residential property classified as non-campus property when the federal criteria are met;
4. Lillian E. Smith Center in Clayton — University-controlled educational property classified as non-campus property; and
5. Applicable public property within, immediately adjacent to, and accessible from the University's campuses.

The University's Clery geography is reviewed periodically and may be updated when ownership, control, use, student access, or other relevant circumstances change.

Crime Statistics Collection and Daily Crime Logs

Crime Statistics Collection

Piedmont University collects and reports crime statistics in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), 20 U.S.C. § 1092(f), and its implementing regulations, 34 C.F.R. § 668.46.

The University collects information concerning Clery-reportable crimes occurring within the University's federally defined Clery geography. Information may be received from Campus Security Authorities (CSAs), Campus Police, local law enforcement agencies, and other University offices or individuals who receive reports of potentially Clery-reportable crimes.

Piedmont University reports statistics for the three most recent calendar years for the crime categories required by the Clery Act, including applicable primary crimes, hate crimes, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and arrests and referrals for disciplinary action for specified violations.

The University uses the definitions and classification standards established by the Clery Act when determining which reported incidents are included in its crime statistics. A report is not excluded from Clery statistics solely because the University or another authority is unable to substantiate the allegation, disciplinary action is not taken, or criminal prosecution does not occur.

Daily Crime Log

Piedmont University Campus Police maintains a Daily Crime Log in accordance with the Clery Act. The Daily Crime Log records crimes reported to Campus Police that occur within the department's patrol jurisdiction.

The Daily Crime Log includes, at a minimum:

- The nature of the crime or incident;
- The date and time the crime or incident was reported;
- The date and time the crime or incident occurred, when known;

- The general location of the crime or incident; and
- The disposition of the complaint, if known.

The Daily Crime Log does not include personally identifiable information about victims. The log is available for public inspection at the Piedmont University Campus Police office during normal business hours, subject to applicable federal requirements.

Information may be temporarily withheld from the Daily Crime Log when disclosure could jeopardize an ongoing investigation, the safety of an individual, the identification or apprehension of a suspect, or the preservation of evidence. Information withheld for these reasons will be added to the log when the circumstances no longer require withholding.

The geographic scope of the Daily Crime Log differs from the Clery geography used to compile the Annual Security Report. The Daily Crime Log reflects crimes occurring within the patrol jurisdiction of Campus Police, while the Annual Security Report uses the University's federally defined Clery geography.

Unfounded Crimes

For Clery Act reporting purposes, a reported crime may be classified as unfounded only when sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel conduct a full investigation and formally determine that the report was false or baseless and that the crime did not occur and was not attempted.

A crime is not considered unfounded solely because:

- The victim or reporting party does not cooperate with an investigation;
- The victim or reporting party later withdraws the complaint;
- An arrest is not made;
- The case does not result in prosecution or conviction;
- Stolen property is recovered;
- The value of stolen property is low; or
- A prosecutor, court, jury, or other non-law-enforcement authority determines that criminal charges should not proceed.

The University does not classify a report as unfounded solely because it is unable to substantiate the report or does not have sufficient information to determine whether a crime occurred. When applicable, Piedmont University reports unfounded crime statistics in accordance with the Clery Act and applicable federal guidance.

Security Awareness and Crime Prevention Education Programs

Piedmont University is committed to promoting awareness of personal safety, crime prevention, and the resources available to members of the University community.

During student orientation and other appropriate educational programs, students receive information regarding personal safety, residence hall security, Campus Police services, emergency procedures, and other resources available to support their safety and well-being.

Throughout the academic year, Piedmont University departments, including Campus Police, Student Life, and other University offices and organizations, may provide crime prevention and security awareness programs addressing topics such as:

- Personal safety and situational awareness;
- Residence hall and campus security;
- Theft prevention;
- Alcohol and drug awareness;
- Sexual assault and sexual violence prevention;
- Dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking prevention;
- Bystander intervention;
- Emergency preparedness and response;
- Reporting options and available University resources; and
- Other safety and crime prevention topics relevant to the University community.

These programs may be provided through orientation programs, residence hall meetings, educational presentations, training programs, campus events, electronic communications, University publications, websites, and other methods of communication.

The University encourages students and employees to take an active role in maintaining a safe campus environment, to be aware of their surroundings, to take reasonable precautions to protect themselves and others, and to promptly report suspected criminal activity or safety concerns to Campus Police, local law enforcement, or an appropriate Campus Security Authority.

Security awareness and crime prevention programs are intended to supplement, rather than replace, the University's emergency response, reporting, and law enforcement procedures.

Hazing Prevention, Reporting, and Response

Piedmont University prohibits hazing and is committed to maintaining a safe and respectful environment for all members of the University community. Hazing is prohibited regardless of whether an individual willingly participates in the activity or believes the activity is voluntary.

Hazing

For purposes of University policy and Clery Act reporting, hazing includes conduct that occurs in connection with the initiation, affiliation, or maintenance of membership in a student organization and that causes, or creates a risk of, physical or psychological injury beyond the reasonable risk encountered at the institution or within the organization.

Hazing may occur regardless of whether the individual subjected to the conduct consented to or participated in the activity. Students and members of student organizations are expected to understand and comply with the University's hazing policy and applicable federal, state, and local laws.

Reporting Hazing

Any member of the Piedmont University community who experiences, witnesses, or receives information regarding suspected hazing is encouraged to report the concern promptly.

Reports may be made to:

- Piedmont University Campus Police: 706-939-1349
- Emergency: 911
- Appropriate University officials or offices, including Student Life, Residence Life, Athletics, or other designated reporting officials

Individuals may report suspected hazing even when they are uncertain whether the conduct violates University policy. Reports may be used to determine whether further action, investigation, or supportive measures are appropriate.

Investigation and University Response

Reports of suspected hazing are reviewed and addressed in accordance with applicable University policies and procedures. Depending on the circumstances, the University may conduct an investigation, refer the matter to the appropriate University conduct process, take interim or protective measures when appropriate, and/or refer the matter to law enforcement.

Students and student organizations found responsible for violating the University's hazing policy may be subject to disciplinary action under the applicable University conduct procedures. Sanctions may include educational requirements, restrictions or loss of privileges, probation, suspension, dismissal, or other sanctions authorized by University policy.

The University's response to hazing does not prevent individuals from reporting suspected criminal conduct to law enforcement or from pursuing other available options.

Georgia Law

Georgia law prohibits hazing in connection with gaining acceptance, membership, office, or other status in a school organization. Applicable state law may impose criminal penalties for hazing.

Members of the University community should also be aware that conduct may violate both University policy and applicable criminal law. The University may address violations through its student conduct process regardless of whether criminal charges are filed or pursued.

Prevention and Awareness

Piedmont University provides education and prevention programming intended to reduce the occurrence of hazing and promote a safe and respectful campus environment.

Hazing prevention and awareness efforts may include required student and employee training, orientation programming, educational presentations, bystander intervention education, and other programs addressing hazing prevention, reporting responsibilities, ethical leadership, and healthy methods of building community and group cohesion.

All Piedmont University students are required to complete Hazing Awareness training, and employees receive Hazing Awareness training as part of the University's required compliance education. Hazing prevention may also be addressed through Welcome Week and other educational programming.

Additional Information

The complete and current University hazing policy, reporting procedures, student conduct procedures, and applicable sanctions are contained in the Piedmont University Student Handbook. Because University policies and procedures may be revised, members of the University community should consult the current Student Handbook for the most up-to-date requirements.

Campus Hazing Transparency Report

In accordance with applicable federal requirements, Piedmont University maintains a Campus Hazing Transparency Report summarizing findings involving student organizations found responsible for hazing violations, when applicable. The report includes the information required by federal law and is updated in accordance with applicable requirements.

Notice of Non-Discrimination

Piedmont University is committed to providing an educational and employment environment that is free from discrimination and harassment. The University does not discriminate in its educational programs, activities, or employment on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy or related conditions, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, religion, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state, or local law.

Piedmont University is committed to providing equal access to its educational programs, activities, services, and employment opportunities and to maintaining an environment in which all members of the University community are treated with dignity and respect.

The University responds to reports and complaints of discrimination and harassment in accordance with applicable federal and state law and University policies. Retaliation against an individual for reporting discrimination or harassment, participating in a university process, or exercising rights protected by law is prohibited.

Title IX and Sex Discrimination

Inquiries or complaints from students or employees concerning discrimination or harassment on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment and other conduct covered by Title IX, should be directed to the University's Title IX Coordinator:

Annual Fire Safety Report

Piedmont University maintains on-campus student housing facilities and, in accordance with the Higher Education Act and the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), prepares and publishes an Annual Fire Safety Report (AFSR). The AFSR provides information concerning fire safety policies, fire prevention and response procedures, fire safety systems, fire drills, and fires occurring in on-campus student housing facilities.

The University's fire safety statistics include, for each on-campus student housing facility and for the three most recent calendar years for which data are available:

- The number of fires and the cause of each fire;
- The number of persons who received fire-related injuries that resulted in treatment at a medical facility, including an on-campus health center;
- The number of deaths related to a fire; and
- The value of property damage caused by a fire.

Fire Reporting

All fires, including fires that are extinguished or do not require a response from the fire department, must be reported immediately.

Demorest Campus

Piedmont University Campus Police: 706-939-1349

Emergency: 911

Campus Police officers are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week on the Demorest Campus.

Athens Campus

Piedmont University Security: 706-433-1789

Emergency: 911

Security personnel are available on the Athens Campus during designated evening and overnight hours.

Students and employees should not delay contacting 911 while attempting to contact Campus Police or Security when emergency assistance is needed.

Fire Log

Piedmont University maintains a written, easily understood Fire Log for fires that occur in on-campus student housing facilities.

The Fire Log records, by the date the fire was reported:

- The nature of the fire;
- The date and time of the fire; and
- The general location of the fire.

The University makes an entry or addition to an entry in the Fire Log within two business days of receiving information concerning a fire.

The Fire Log for the most recent 60-day period is available for public inspection during normal business hours. Any portion of the Fire Log older than 60 days will be made available for public inspection within two business days of a request.

The Fire Log is maintained by the University and is available through Campus Police.

Regular Mandatory Supervised Fire Drills

Piedmont University conducts regular mandatory supervised fire drills in on-campus student housing facilities to familiarize students and employees with fire evacuation procedures, emergency notification procedures, evacuation routes, assembly areas, and individual responsibilities during an emergency.

Campus Police, in cooperation with designated University personnel, coordinates and documents fire drills and other emergency exercises conducted in residential facilities.

During the previous calendar year, Piedmont University conducted two regular mandatory supervised fire drills in on-campus student housing facilities.

The University may also conduct additional emergency exercises or drills throughout the academic year as appropriate to evaluate emergency preparedness and reinforce safe evacuation procedures.

Fire Prevention Policies and Rules

Piedmont University maintains policies and procedures designed to reduce the risk of fires in on-campus student housing facilities.

Portable Electrical Appliances

Students residing in university housing must comply with university residence hall policies concerning electrical appliances and equipment. Appliances with open flames or exposed heating elements are prohibited in residence halls unless specifically authorized by university policy.

Students should use electrical appliances only in accordance with university housing policies and manufacturer safety instructions and should not overload electrical outlets or use damaged electrical cords or equipment.

Smoking and Tobacco Products

Smoking, including the use of hookahs and other smoking paraphernalia, is prohibited inside university residential buildings.

Piedmont University is a tobacco-free campus. The use of tobacco products on university property is prohibited in accordance with university policy. Violations may result in disciplinary action and other sanctions as provided by university policy.

Open Flames

Open flames and devices with exposed heating elements are prohibited in residence halls except where specifically authorized by university policy.

Students should never leave cooking equipment or other heat-producing appliances unattended and should immediately report smoke, burning odors, fire, or other fire hazards to Campus Police or 911.

Fire Safety Systems in On-Campus Student Housing

Piedmont University's on-campus student housing facilities are equipped with fire detection and alarm systems appropriate to the individual facility. Residence halls are equipped with automatic fire detection and alarm systems that provide notification in the event of a fire or other activation.

Fire alarm systems are monitored by a third-party monitoring service that relays alerts to Piedmont University Campus Police on a 24-hour-a-day, 365-day-a-year basis.

Fire protection systems and equipment are inspected, tested, and maintained in accordance with applicable requirements.

The University contracts with qualified fire protection service providers for required inspection and testing of fire alarm and sprinkler systems. Fire Alarms Plus provides fire alarm testing services, and Impact Fire Services provides sprinkler testing services.

The specific fire safety systems installed in each on-campus student housing facility may include fire alarm systems, smoke detection, heat detection, fire extinguishers, sprinkler systems, emergency lighting, and other fire protection equipment as applicable to the facility.

Fire Evacuation Procedures

When a fire alarm is activated, students, employees, and visitors must evacuate the building immediately unless directed otherwise by emergency personnel.

Residents should:

1. Activate the fire alarm if it has not already been activated.
2. Call 911 and provide the location of the fire or emergency.
3. Notify Campus Police or Security.
4. Leave the building immediately using the nearest safe exit.
5. Close doors behind you as you leave, but do not lock doors.
6. Use stairways rather than elevators.
7. Assist individuals who may need assistance, when doing so does not place you at additional risk.
8. Move to the designated assembly area or other safe location identified by university personnel.
9. Keep roadways, fire lanes, fire hydrants, sidewalks, and building entrances clear for emergency personnel.
10. Notify emergency personnel if you believe someone may remain inside the building.

11. Do not re-enter the building until authorized by emergency personnel or University officials.

Individuals should not stop to retrieve personal belongings if doing so would delay evacuation or place them at risk.

If You Encounter Smoke

If there is smoke present, stay as low to the floor as possible and move toward the nearest safe exit. Cover your nose and mouth with cloth if necessary to reduce smoke inhalation.

If a door is hot to the touch or smoke is entering through the door or around its edges, do not open the door. Remain in the safest available location, close the door, call 911, and alert emergency personnel to your location.

If You Become Trapped

If you cannot safely exit a building:

1. Call 911 and provide your exact location, if known.
2. Close doors between yourself and the fire or smoke.
3. Stay as low to the floor as possible.
4. If a window is available and can be safely opened, use it to signal emergency personnel.
5. Make noise or otherwise signal emergency personnel to your location.
6. Do not attempt to jump from an upper floor.
7. Do not attempt to rescue another person unless specifically trained and directed to do so by emergency personnel.

Individuals should not attempt to enter a burning or smoke-filled building to rescue another person. Immediately notify emergency personnel if someone may be trapped inside.

Campus Evacuation

When evacuation of a campus is required, students and employees should follow posted evacuation routes and instructions from Campus Police, Security, emergency personnel, or designated University personnel.

Room or Area Evacuation

Students and employees may be directed to evacuate an individual room, classroom, office, residence hall, or other area. Evacuation routes are posted in residence halls and other University facilities where applicable.

Building Evacuation

When a fire alarm sounds or when evacuation is otherwise ordered, occupants must leave the building using the nearest safe exit and proceed to the designated assembly or safe area.

Evacuees should remain away from the affected building and keep access routes clear for emergency vehicles and emergency personnel.

Campus Evacuation

When all or part of a campus must be evacuated, Campus Police, Security, or other authorized University personnel will provide instructions regarding evacuation routes and designated locations. Students and employees must follow those instructions without delay.

Fire Safety Education and Training

Piedmont University provides fire safety information and emergency preparedness education to students and employees through orientation programs, residence hall meetings, emergency drills, training programs, University communications, and other appropriate methods.

Fire safety education may include information concerning:

- Fire prevention;
- Fire alarm procedures;
- Emergency notification;
- Evacuation routes and assembly areas;
- Residence hall fire safety;
- Proper use of fire extinguishers, when appropriate;
- Prohibited items and activities;
- Procedures for reporting fires and fire hazards; and
- Individual responsibilities during a fire or other emergency.

Students and employees are encouraged to familiarize themselves with evacuation routes, emergency exits, fire alarm pull stations, and designated assembly areas in the buildings they regularly use.

Fire Safety Improvements

Piedmont University regularly evaluates its fire safety systems, emergency procedures, fire prevention policies, and residential facilities to identify opportunities for improvement.

The University will implement fire safety improvements when determined necessary based on inspections, testing, fire incidents, emergency exercises, changes in applicable requirements, recommendations from fire protection professionals, or other relevant safety considerations.

Any significant fire safety improvements identified for the applicable reporting period will be described in this section of the Annual Fire Safety Report.

Fire Safety Contacts

Students and employees should immediately report any fire, smoke, fire alarm activation, suspected fire, or other fire-related emergency to the appropriate emergency contact.
